A clenched fist is the central focus, surrounded by a vibrant, glowing trail of golden stars that radiates outwards. The background is a dark blue, textured surface, possibly fabric, with a pattern of small, light blue stars scattered throughout. The overall effect is one of power and innovation.
